

COOK COUNTY RECORDER OF DEEDS

118 N. CLARK ST., RM. 120, CHICAGO, IL 60602

Where's My Document?

Dear Cook County Recorder of Deeds (CCRD) Customer,

If you have recently mailed in a document to be recorded via the United States Postal Service (USPS), but have failed to receive the document back, there is a good chance that your document was missing the required fee of $2.25 for the Return Mail Service Charge (RMFEE). Currently, CCRD, is holding your document in anticipation of the required $2.25 RMFEE, which you may submit via check made out to the Cook County Recorder of Deeds, when accompanied by a completed below RMFEE Request Form that may be sent to the following address and attention to:

118 North Clark Street, Room 120
Attention Mail Room Supervisor
Chicago, Illinois 60602

Please make sure to send 1 RMFEE Request Form per document requested, and a separate check per document request. Also, please take note that you may also review the recorded document via our website of cookrecorder.com for FREE or purchase a copy there for a nominal fee. Thank you in advance for your cooperation, and we appreciate your business.
